D. The Rangely Community Gardens was presented by Don Davidson with an informal meeting held for those interested at the end of the WRAP meeting.

E. Roy Cramer presented the 'Press Release' draft that would be submitted by Susie Berardi to The Herald Times as an official announcement of WRAP time, only

WRAP.

F. Susie Berardi explained the necessity of separating personal opinions about WRAP from speaking as an official spokesperson of WRAP. At this the Chair-Founder, Don Davidson is an official spokesperson of

1. 'Talking Points' will be posted on the website at a date to be announced.

New Business

A. Don Davidson presented an update on the Rangely Renewable Energy US Senate Appropriations Bill ($5 million). The Rangely Town Council will administrate the money.

1. Cogency Power, Inc. (a business incorporated with Colorado Department of State (CDOS)).
2. Independent Energy Production focus will be the Rangely Medical Center, Colorado Northwestern Community College, the Rangely Recreation Center, and Wastewater

B. Rhonda Davidson shared that a Post Office Box would cost approximately $50 ($12 for two keys, and $38.00 for a six-month box rental fee)

C. Roy Cramer and Tammy Dahle suggested a flyer he and Tammy Dahle created to announce creation of the White River Area Preparedness group be placed in the Town of Rangely utility bill. When it was explained that it would cost $180 for one page, single-sided, it was suggested that a Press Release be written and submitted to The Herald Times. A draft will be presented to the group at the next meeting.

It was announced that the meeting minutes and agenda will be posted on the WRAP website from this meeting forward, and hard copies will no longer be distributed at the meetings.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, March 31, at 7:00PM.

There being no further business, it was moved by Elaine Urie and seconded by Roy Cramer to adjourn the meeting. There being no objectives, the meeting was adjourned at 8:10PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Susie Berardi
Temporary Secretary
