

White River Area Preparedness (WRAP)
Meeting on 3-12-26

Meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m. by President Don Davidson at The Gathering Place. There were seven present including a quorum of voting board members.

Minutes of the last meeting: These were handed out to all present. A correction was made by Mark Stamos. He said that all members who have ever paid dues since WRAP was incorporated are eligible to vote in this election. He said that a Zoom meeting had been held, (that the secretary was not privy to), resulting in this correction. The rest of the minutes were approved as submitted.

Treasurer's Report: None

Old Business:

Regarding the proposed low-power FM station, Don talked to the CNCC president about possibly creating a course in broadcast journalism. The students could use the FM station to practice their craft. Don intends to have a face-to-face meeting with the college on this proposal.

Regarding the proposed shooting range in cooperation with the Bureau of Land Management, Shawn Morgan said that the facility can be designed small or larger to include parking, shade covers, short range, long range, backing for targets. He referenced the range at Cameo, Colorado as an example. Cameo Shooting and Education Complex Homepage - CSEC Also discussed was the benefits to the community that the range could offer such as scheduled "shoots" with registered participants, firearms training by certified instructors, etc.

New Business:

Mark Stamos moved that the board increase to seven as provided in the bylaws to allow all those nominated to be on the board. Seconded by Don. After discussion regarding quorums and other concerns, Mark withdrew the motion from the floor. Don seconded the withdrawal and the motion was removed from the floor.

Election for five board members was held by written ballot. Elected were Heather Fitzpatrick, Shawn Morgan, Chris Petersen, Rebecca Elder and Mark Stamos.

Announcements:

The new board members will have a meeting on Monday April 13 at 5:00 p.m. to decide officers and meeting dates/times.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:51 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane Pennell, Outgoing Secretary
